

Miss Elinor Broughton Wed To Dr. Etienne in College Park

THE MARRIAGE OF Miss Elinor Courtney Broughton, daughter of Dean L. B. Broughton, of the University of Maryland, and Mrs. Broughton, to Dr. Wolcott L. Etienne son of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Etienne, of Berwyn, Md., took place last night at 8 o'clock in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in College Park, Md. The Rev. George Parsons officiated.

The chancel was decorated with palms and white flowers. On the altar were calla lilies and lighted tapers. Preceding the ceremony, an organ recital was given by Mrs. Earl Bellman.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin. Eyelet embroidery formed the trimming around the sweetheart neckline and also appeared on the long sleeves where they ended in points over the hands. She carried a sheaf of calla lilies.

MISS MARGARET HOLMES, of College Park, was maid of honor for her cousin and bridesmaids were Mrs. Winton Woods, of Berwyn and Mrs. Paul Peffer, of Bethesda. They were gowned alike in white faille dresses made with hoop skirts. White faille hats completed the ensembles. The maid of honor carried an arm bouquet of red roses and lilies of the valley. Bridesmaids carried fans of the same flowers.

Dorion Etienne, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Winton Woods, Paul Peffer, Dr. Harold Sisson and Barnett Broughton, brother of the bride.

AFTER THE CEREMONY there was a reception at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house. Mrs. Broughton wore a lace and crepe gown of dusty rose with a flower hat of the same shade. Her corsage was of orchids. Mrs. Etienne chose blue crepe for the occasion. Crystal beads formed the trimming on the gown and she wore a flowered hat in two shades of blue. Her corsage was of orchids.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cooper, of Hamilton, Ontario; Mr. and Mrs. Showell Dennis, of Woodbury, N. J.; Mrs. O. B. Washington, of Nashville, Tenn.; Dr. M. E. McDonnell, of Altoona, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Holmes, of Roanoke, Va., and Mrs. E. B. Kettell, Mrs. D. B. King and Miss Esther Broughton, of Tappahannock, Va.
